

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF OVERSEAS SCHOOLS

announcing . . . . .

SUMMER 2010

June 14-24

Aerospace Science Institute

The 25th annual teachers' institute will be held at the Kennedy Space Center in co-operation with the University of Central Florida. Twenty-five (25) participants by application. Tuition, room, and board are free.

June 20-21

New College Counselor Workshop

A two-day workshop provided by the College Board at Georgetown University. For counselors new to college counseling and participating in the summer institute. Fee supported.

June 20 -23

AAIE Teacher Institute (formerly Optimal Match Network Institute)

A 3-day institute, "Ensuring Success for all Students", to be held at Nova Southeastern University, North Miami Beach Campus, FL. Sponsored by AAIE and The Committee on Exceptional Children and Youth. One hundred (100) participants by application. Fee supported. Scholarships available for A/OS assisted schools.

June 20-25

American Education Reaches Out:
Standards Based Curriculum
(AERO: SBC)

Six institutes at the Potomac School (McLean, VA):
Academic Leaders (for curriculum coordinators and administrators);

Assessment: Using MAP and other data; and

AERO: SBC Workshops on curriculum design in English

Mathematics

Science

World Languages

Preference will be given to administrator/curriculum coordinator and teacher teams. Tuition, room, and board are free.

SUMMER 2010

June 21-24

Summer Institute for International Admissions

A four-day College Board information/training institute specifically for college guidance counselors in American/international schools. Fee supported. Scholarships available for A/OS assisted schools.

June 27-30

“Challenging Your Most Able Students”

A 3-day institute for heads, principals and others: Creating a plan to challenge our most able students. Sponsored by A/OS, AAIE, and The Center for Talented Youth, Johns Hopkins University. Fee supported. Scholarships available for A/OS assisted schools.

June 27-July 2

“Challenging Your Most Able Students”

The 17th annual state-of-the-art technology information/training for administrators, teachers, and techies will be held at the Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology. Seventy-five (75) participants by application. Tuition, room, and board are free.

July 6-7

Directors New to A/OS Schools

A two-day workshop at the U.S. State Department, Office of Overseas Schools, to inform and support school heads new to A/OS Schools. Invitational with all local costs supported.

Applications available January 4, 2010 in American-Assisted Overseas Schools*For more information contact: Your Regional Education Officer www.state.gov/m/a/os/c1686.htm